

Please do not override existing state laws regarding telemarketers with less stringent federal regulation. I used to get 3-4 telemarketing calls every day, and now I get maybe one per week, thanks to the No-Call provisions enacted under Indiana law. If there is to be a federal standard, let it be a MINIMUM to which states are free to add additional requirements.

Thanks for listening.

Taylor W. Burton-Edwards
Anderson, Indiana